

BEDRUTHAN
HOTEL & SPA

Overlooking Cornwall's idyllic Mawgan Porth beach, Bedruthan Hotel & Spa is a cliffside outpost of art and nature. This unexpected Scandi-inspired retreat, offers colourful sea view rooms, artist led workshops and a sensory spa experience. Promising an authentic Cornish experience, Bedruthan is suitable for families, couples and solo travellers alike.

Designed with its environment in mind, the hotel provides bright, airy and spacious interiors which celebrate the Cornish landscape. There are a variety of unique rooms to choose from, whether you are looking out over the golden sands of Mawgan Porth or to striking views of the Cornish landscape, you can be assured of a great night's sleep on your Hypnos bed.

Whether your travelling solo, or with company the Bedruthan offers wonderful in-season produce in their two dining venues. There are also opportunities to learn a new skill or craft from the array of workshops as well as time to unplug and enjoy the beautiful sea-view spa. Guests in search of some down time, can also slow down in the Sensory Spa Garden, the sauna, steam room or Roman-style caldarium before stepping into the expansive hydro pool and stares out over the Atlantic.

“We have been perfecting the art of designing for sleep for 120 years, working with hospitality clients all over the world, to ensure their guests have the ultimate sleep experience, night after night. Our tailored sleep solutions and unique service package allows our clients to select with confidence. The Bedruthan chose a selection of contract specification mattresses, divans, and sofa beds to ensure the complete comfort of their guests whilst maintaining flexibility in room occupancy”.
